

POWER OF ATTORNEY AND DECLARATION OF REPRESENTATIVE

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS:

This form provides limited authority for department representatives to speak about confidential tax matters with designated third parties. Such authority is limited to the tax period, tax type and the specific issue/purpose identified herein.

While tax practitioners are encouraged to maintain appropriate declarations of authority to handle clients' tax matters within their own records, tax practitioners should not submit unsolicited REV-677 forms to the department en masse or as a matter of routine. Such forms will be disregarded.

A REV-677 form should only be submitted to an individual within the department upon an agent's request for such authorization.

If a department representative has requested a REV-677 form to authorize discussion of confidential tax matters with a third party, please return the form to the department representative as requested.
